

WHY LIST WITH DON DROKE?

Experience – Knowledge – Expertise – Negotiating Skill – Integrity - Reputation – Best Service

I hope you will give me the opportunity to list your home for sale and bring to bear my extensive marketing and sales expertise on your behalf.

The task of selling your property is a very important one, representing a large financial transaction and probably involving strong emotions regarding your home.

With my guidance and continual assistance as an accomplished Realtor®, you will have the benefit of the requisite knowledge and experience, as I dedicate myself to marketing your home professionally and effectively.

My goal is to obtain for you the best possible price in the shortest possible time, but also to make the home-selling process painless and expedient for you.

At a time when some agents' listings languish on the market for ages, there have been extended periods during which I maintained a record of selling every one of my listings within 45 days!

Can you imagine how happy those sellers were with my services?

In closing, I ask for the opportunity to list your home for sale and to earn your trust and confidence in my proven ability to get the job done, while consistently exceeding your expectations.

Thank you.

I look forward to working with you...

Don
